

The ESB150 provides the benefits and feel of riding a road bike while in the comfort of your own home. From handlebars and a seat pad all the way to the cranks and pedals — the ESB150 looks and feels like a premium road bike. Sealed bearing pivot points and a v-grooved belt drive provide a quiet and smooth ride while a dual felt pad braking system applies smooth, consistent resistance for even the most hardcore workouts. Seat and handlebars adjust both vertically and horizontally allowing a perfect fit for almost any size user. The ESB150 Indoor Exercise Bike is ideal for light commercial and residential settings
